25X1 16. [REDACTED] LIAISON Neil Simon, in the office of Representative Fortney Stark (D., Calif.), called. He is working on claims made by Vietnam veterans concerning chemicals used in Vietnam. He wants to know if the Agency ever used herbicides identified as "agent red" and "agent blue." If so, he has additional questions. I told him I would inquire and get back to him.

25X1 17. [REDACTED] THIRD AGENCY [REDACTED] DIA, called to say that DIA won't have a HUMINT study inventory until 11 May.

25X1 18. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Gary Cornwell, Deputy Staff Chief, House Select Committee on Assassinations, who advised me that the Committee will be interviewing [REDACTED] He indicated he believed this individual was an employee and was alerting us to this potential interview. This name was surfaced during an interview with another former Agency employee.

25X1 19. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Al Tarabochia, Senate Judiciary Committee staff, and informed him that the proposal by certain Cuban exiles which they had discussed with Senator Richard Stone (D., Fla.) and which Tarabochia had discussed with [REDACTED] and me on 8 May, was brought to the attention of higher authorities and that the Agency suggested that the Senator bring this matter to the attention of the State Department and Justice Department. Tarabochia said he would so advise Senator Stone and indicated that such action would be best since he felt the proposal would come under the Foreign Agents Registration Act. He added that when he briefed DIA on the matter, they posed no objection.

25X1 20. [REDACTED] LIAISON John Marshall, on the staff of the Morgan-Schmitt Senate Select Committee on Ethics Subcommittee, reviewed additional material related to the Subcommittee's investigation of unauthorized disclosure of intelligence information concerning Panama.
